Are you passionate about nature, conservation, and sharing your knowledge with others? Wolwedans is looking for enthusiastic and experienced Field Guides to join our team in the breathtaking NamibRand Nature Reserve. If you have a deep love for the natural world, exceptional hospitality skills, and the necessary qualifications, we invite you to apply!

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct guided nature drives, walking safaris, and other guest experiences.
- Educate guests about the local flora, fauna, geology, and cultural heritage of the Namib Desert.
- Ensure guest safety while providing an informative and engaging experience.
- Assist with conservation initiatives and environmental sustainability efforts.
- Maintain and care for vehicles, equipment, and safari-related gear.
- Work closely with camp staff to enhance the overall guest experience.
- Deliver a high level of professionalism, enthusiasm, and customer service.

Requirements:

- Valid Driver's License with PDP (Professional Driving Permit) – essential.
- NATH Level 3 or higher (or equivalent qualification in field guiding).
- First Aid certification (Level 1 or higher).
- Minimum 2 years of experience as a Field Guide in a lodge or safari setting.
- Strong knowledge of Namibia's ecosystems, wildlife, and conservation principles.
- Excellent communication and storytelling skills.
- Fluency in English (additional languages such as German or Afrikaans are a plus).
- Ability to work flexible hours, including weekends and holidays.
- A passion for hospitality, guest interaction, and sustainable tourism.

What We Offer:

- Competitive salary based on experience.
- Accommodation and meals provided while on duty.
- The opportunity to work in one of Namibia's most stunning and remote landscapes.
- Career development and training opportunities within the Wolwedans Collection.

If you meet the above requirements and are ready to be part of a world-class conservation tourism team, we'd love to hear from you!
