- Previous experience in an upmarket environment
- Sound knowledge of food and beverage operations
- Excellent attention to detail
- Computer literate, especially with ResRequest and TallOrder
- Exceptional communication skills in English
- Strong financial management skills
- Management experience in hospitality
- Must be a Namibian Citizen

Key Responsibilities & Expectations

- Independently run the Lodge or Camp without supervision
- Oversee and manage day-to-day operations
- Coordinate and ensure efficient service delivery by site staff
- Manage stock and breakages
- Handle staff management, including discipline and service quality
- Host guests and ensure a seamless experience
- Oversee guest check-ins and check-outs
- Must have a valid Drivers Licence (PDP will be an advantage)

Key Attributes

- A relationship builder by nature
- A mature approach to life and work
- Passionate about the hospitality industry and attention to detail
- Highly self-motivated and self-directed
- Comfortable assuming ownership of responsibilities
- Willing to work remotely in a desert environment for extended periods
- Passionate about sustainability and giving back to nature
- Works well under pressure
- Adaptable and comfortable with change
- Curious and passionate about the industry
- Flexible and open-minded in approach
- Sophisticated in communication across various channels
- A quick learner
- Be a Team Player

Why Join Us? By becoming a part of Wolwedans, you are not just getting a job—you are joining a community dedicated to excellence, sustainability, and creating life-changing experiences for our guests. If you thrive in a dynamic environment and want to make a meaningful impact, we'd love to hear from you!
